

Abstract

A method of multicast routing includes receiving link state advertisements from routers in a network, constructing a short path tree multicast routing table from the received link state packets.

386215.B11

09362521-072899